About me

I am an experienced and professional voice artist and actor, and have been a storyteller for clients including Google, Kelloggs, HSBC, Adidas and Cisco.

With versatility ranging from bright and earnest, to authoritative and grounded, I seek to make everyone I work with comfortable that their project is in good hands, and have fun whilst making their ideas a reality.

My home studio set up that allows me to deliver consistent quality recordings to clients fast. So I can ensure that your needs are always met at a reasonable cost.
